Prevention efforts awarded

THE Busselton Mates Men's Support Group (MATES) won the category for Outstanding Achievement in Injury Prevention at the ICCWA Injury Prevention Awards, for their contribution to preventing domestic violence in the South West.

Deborah Costello, CEO of ICCWA

said, "It is fantastic to see a community group tackling a largely untouched issue, with such outstanding results."

The Busselton and Dunsborough region has seen a massive reduction in domestic violence and revisit call-outs since the start of the support group.
